

Favorite place to shop for antiques

Red Wing

www.redwingchamber.com
651-388-4719

It's not surprising that you picked the town of Red Wing as your favorite place for antiquing—the town itself is a slice of history, with an old-fashioned Main Street lined with galleries, boutiques, and jewelers. Whether you're looking for Victorian furniture, mid-century modern light fixtures, or Red Wing's renowned pottery, you're always just around the corner from a new-to-you treasure.

Stillwater

www.ilovestillwater.com
651-439-4001

If you're looking for a Victorian fainting couch upholstered in purple velvet, a first edition of "The Great Gatsby," or the sugar bowl that will finally complete your Blue Willow collection, you'll do well to take the scenic drive to historic Stillwater, whose downtown is lined with high-end antique shops.

You also find nifty old things at Architectural Antiques, The Cottage Tea House Antiques and Gifts and the Mall of St. Paul.

Favorite garden shop

Bachman's

www.bachmans.com
7 Twin Cities locations
612-861-7600

Signs of spring in Minnesota include long lines at the car wash, pale legs in shorts and people carrying those distinctive purple and white boxes filled with every shade of green. Bachman's, still family owned after all these years, has been providing garden supplies for some of the country's most determined gardeners since the 1880s. And even if you're not a gardener, who doesn't love getting one of those purple packages delivered?

Mother Earth Gardens

www.motherearthgarden.com
3738 42nd Ave. S., Minneapolis
612-724-2296

If your green sensibility matches your green thumb, then do some digging at Mother Earth Gardens. Located in Minneapolis' Longfellow neighborhood, Mother Earth Gardens specializes in organic, sustainably grown plants and eco-friendly garden supplies and gifts. Whether your gardening interest is just sprouting or has taken root years ago, you'll find tools, information and classes to help you love and cultivate the Earth.

You also green your thumb at Tangletown Gardens, Linder's and Gertens.
